

PERSPECTIVES IN Parenting SERIES

Making Schools Safer for 2SLGBTQIA+ Students

January 30, 2024
7-8 pm

Walking through the hallways of a school, one can often encounter queer and/or transphobic behaviour, whether it's name-calling, hurtful language, or bullying. In this workshop for parents, we will demonstrate the work that CAEO does in schools so that parents can learn, ask their questions and also talk about how parents can support the queer and trans kids in their lives.

In collaboration with:

Bullying & the Law

February 21, 2024
7-8 pm

In this workshop for parents, you will learn more about the legal aspects of bullying such as criminal law, sharing of intimate images, school responsibilities and possible recourses.

Transition to High School

April 30, 2024
7-8:30 pm

This parent and child workshop prepares families for the exciting new high school chapter. The skills, resources, and strategies provided will help students confidently face new challenges and support their personal and academic success. Participants will learn effective high school time management, organizational tricks, successful study methods, and long-term project planning for improved academic performance.

Don't miss the opportunity to gain valuable insights and equip yourself with effective strategies for supporting your child's journey. Secure your spot now!
Register at parents.learnquebec.ca/webinars